OLD LAWMAKERS WHO WILL RETIRE

Many of the Most Prominent are Not Candidates.

NEW MATERIAL IN LEGISLATURE

Men of Ability Will, as a Rule, Succeed Those Who Have Served Their State Long and Well.

Many of the leading members of the Legislature, men who have served with distinction for several years, will not be there when the General Assembly convenes on the first Wednesday in Decem-

Hon, E. W. Saunders, the present speaker of the House, who has been elected judge of his circuit, will be missed. He came to the House away back in the eighties and at once became a leader. He was a strong debater when at college, and his powers in this direction were rapidly developed when he was made one of the law-makers. Mr. Saunders was one of the abiest debaters in the House one of the abjest debaters in the House during the long period of his service there, Another man who will be very much missed is Hon. T. C. Pilcher, of Fauquier. He has seen long service in the House and finally became chairman of the im-portant Committee ou Roads and Inter-nal Navigation. Just why Mr. Pilcher decided to retire to private life he has never let his most intimate friends know. never let his most intimate friends know. He could have been easily renominated by his party, but for some unexplained reason he declined to be a candidate and the honor went to his friend, Mr. Moses Green. Mr. Pilcher is a man no one was especially anxious to meet in debate. In a rough, roll and tumble discussion he has few equals. He and Mr. Saunders often "locked horns" and the scraps be tween them were always interesting to the spectators.

ON THE SENATE SIDE.

Over on the Senate side Mr. George W. Morris, of Charlottesville, will be sadly missed. He is now the judge of the Corporation Court of his city. He came to the front soon after he entered the Senate. In debate he was always able to "hold up his end of the line." M. Morris retirement will open up the wa for some other Senator to preside ove the Committee on Public Institutions. One of the very ablest men who have been in the Senate during the last lew years will not be there next winter. He is the Hon. B. B. Munford, of Richmond Mr. Munford could have been re-elected, but he declined to be a candidate. He was one of the most level-headed men in the upper branch of the General Assem bly, and his speeches always attracted attention.

One of the oldest Senators in point of service who will retire to private life is Hon. Conway R. Sands, of Richmond. He has made a record any man might be proud of. He retires voluntarily, decining proud of. He retires voluntarily, declining a renomination.

The man of all others who will be missed from the Capitol during the legislative session is Hon, H, D, Flood, who has been elected to Congress. Mr. Flood came to the House of Delegates about fifteen years ago. After serving there two or three terms he was sent to the Sentitle Head. ate. He has been clearman of the Com-mittee on Elections and Privileges during militee on Elections and Privileges during the two last terms. He has been a leader in each body in which he has served. Mr. Flood is one of the most tireless and energetic workers, In nearly every case in which he became the champion of a measure he succeeded in his efforts.

served in the Senate during recent years is Hon. Henry Fairfax. He declined teclection, and his retirement to private life is a public loss. Mr. Fairfax was the chairman of the Finance Committee, and looked carefully after the financial interests of the State,

SOME NEW MEMBERS. Some of the new men who will be elected on Tursday will become leaders. Mr Richard B. Davis, of Petersburg, is a lawyer of wide reputation. He will be one of the big men in the House.

Col. James R. Caton, who will come from Alexandria to serve in the House, is a lawyer of ability, and in 1897 was a formidable candidate for Lieutenant-Gy-

Norfolk will send to the Senate Col. W W. Sale, of the Governor's staff, who will succeed the lamented Col. W. E. Foster grand old gentleman, who has died since the last session.

Richmond will have in Col. George Wayne Anderson and Mr. Julian Bryant two worthy successors of Messrs Mun-

Charles M. Wallace, Jr., will go back to Charles M. Watlace, Jr., will go back to the House from Richmond. He served ther with distinction at the session be-fore the last. Mr. George L. Ford, who is said to be a man of ability, will be chosen to succeed Mr. Fairfax, and Mr. F. C. Moon will succeed Mr. Flood, Judge Blaker's successor in the Senate will be Blakev's successor in the Senate will be Mr. J. Boyd Sears, one of the best known lawyers in the Tidewater section. While many good and valuable men will be lost, there will be among the new members a number of men of ability.

he Republicans turned their guns madly pon the Constitutional Convention, and celared that the Democrate party was not to be trusted in he matter of framing new suftrage clause for the State, and hat they were about to take the faufrage from a large proportion of the faufrage from a large proportion of the face people of the State.

But John Goode, Jack Montague, Wil-

iam A. Anderson, Taylor Ellyson and ien of that stripe, whom the people had rusted in the past and who had always ept faith and redeemed their promises oldly and emphatically denounced the talements as utterly and wholly false, nd their utterances on the subject have een placed before every white voter in he State by orators on the stump and hey have been asked if they are willing o trust the Democratic party in this mat er, and if they will prefer the party of ledigo and Hoge and Summers, who laced the curse of negro suffrage upon hem. It is the better opinion that white /irginians will choose the former, and hat they will say so in no uncertain ones on Tuesday.

FOR WHITE SUPREMACY. The question has resolved itself into one f white supremacy, pure and simple, and n this the white people of Virginia are cted to stand together next Tuesday, leaders are united beyond question, nd it is believed the rank and the w tand in solid phalanx to the end; that he white voting column may remain to proken, and that the destines of the old ommonwealth shall continue in the hands f the great race that gave Pr. idents to he country; that placed Virginia upper-nest in the galaxy of the States that have nade this nation great. There is no dis ounting the loyalty of the leaders of the icket. Congressman Swittson has be-haved like a man and a loyal Democrat. Senator Jeffries has done likewise. Senaor Martin is doing his duty and Lawless, Lassiter, Hay and other strong ant-Montague leaders in the primary canvass tre do'ng splendid work. With all factions of the Democratic party united and active they are invin-cible in Virginia, for it is essentially a Democratic State. These countings are vail to-day and on Tuesday they are opected to work out the victory which redicted above. The day will be one of great interest to Virgin. 11s. Captain Joseph E. Willard, Democratic tominee for Lieutenant-Governor, made is first appearance in this section of the state in the present campaign before a airly good-sized audience in Leader Hall, n Manchester, last night. He went over n company with Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson and Hon, E. C. Folkes, and made a or son and non, E. C. Folkes, and made a very catchy speech on the issues of the campaign. Captain W. W. Baker and Hon. D. L. Toney, House nominees, were in the stage, as were a number of prominent Democratic leaders.

Capt. A. C. Attkisson presided and introduced Hon. E. C. Folkes first. Mr. Folkes spoke briefly but with this captain.

froduced from E. C. Folkes first. Aff. Folkes spoke briefly, but with telling ef-fect, and was often cheered by his hear-ers as he pointed the way to Democratic triumph next Tuesday and scored the Re-ublican party. Captain Willard made a splendid 'm pression on his hearers, and was often interrupted by applause. He discussed he issues in an able manner and interspersed his remarks with timey anecdotes, which created great merri-ment. He traced the history of Demo-cratic achievement from 1885 down to the present time, and showed what the party had done in the line of giving the people action and honest administration of their public affairs. He touched briefly upon national issues, and struck some telling blows at the record of the Republican on finance, Porto Rican tariff and the Spanish-American war. Captain Willard said all the people who were stumping for Colonel Hoge were either Federal office-holders or men who were seeking office, and it was with them were seeking office, and it was with them a question of getting something out of it. He pointed out how the Democrats had stood by the Confederate soldiers and fostered the public school system; and, in short, how they had given an honest and economic administration of the State government since they had come into power. His comparison of the candidates was very interesting and his tribute to was very interesting, and his tribute to

Mr. Montague and Major Anderson was exceedingly elequent. Captain Willard closed with a splendid appeal to his hearers to stand by Baker and Toney, and gave them a clear sheet as law-makers, he having served in the House with them. When Captain Willard concluded his remarks, Hon. H. R. Pollard made a brief speech which fairly bristled with timely advice to Democrats on Tuesday. All the no doubt be of benefit to the party.

CHAIRMAN DOHERTY'S APPEAL tle and Captain Hall Have Made a Splendid Fight Here.

Chairman James B. Doherty is making a powerful fight for the Democratic ticket, and he has the active co-operation of his entire committee. On behalf of himself and his colleagues, Mr. Doherty issued the following strong appeal to the Democrats of Richmond yesterday, urging them, one and all, to turn out and give their carnest support to the Democratic nominees on Tuesday:

To the Democratic Voters of Richmond:
The election on Tuesday next is one of far-reaching importance to the people of this Commonwealth, and as chairman of the Democratic party off this city I wish to impress upon you the importance of a large Democratic majority. Our enemy—the Republican party—has been conducting a quiet campaign in strong Democratic sections of the State, relying upon Democratic apathy to help them, while in Republican strongholds they have been uncratic apathy to help them, while in Republican strongholds they have been unusually active in the effort to increase their vote.

Richmond has ever been regarded as the citadel of Democracy, and in years past has by its splendid Democratic majorities been able to overcome that aid which the solid negro vote has given the Republican party and has magnificently contributed to Democratic triumph in the Old Dominion.

That interest which has ever inspired the Democratic party to contend for good management in the affairs of the State should actuate the Democratic party now, and Richmond should not be laggard in the great duty now devolving upon her, but should rally with increasing zeal and but should raily with interesting team and energy around the standard of Democracy which has been so nobly carried by our distinguished standard-bearers—Montague, Willard and Anderson.

While it is important that a full vote.

be given the State ticket. It is also impor-tant that our nominees for the Legislature receive the full Democratic vote, and to do this it is necessary that employers give their employes opportunity to go to

A ticket has been placed in the field A ticket has been placed in the field in opposition to the regular Democratic nominees for the Legislature, and purysuasive attempts here being made to weaken the Democratic column. It is the duty of every good citizen to render null every attempt to damage the welfare and prosperity of our State by lessening the hold of the Democratic party, which has so long ministered to Virginia property. which has so long ministered to Virglnia's advancement.

Democrats of Richmond remember that the Democracy of the State look to you fully expecting from you a large vote for the success of our ticket, and therefore let not fore let not these expectations be fraught with disappointment.

Vote for Democracy—the synonym of good government in Virginia—the representative of the people's true interest, and above and beyond all the true and loyal exponent of Anglo-Saxon supremacy.

Respectfully yours,

Respectfully yours,

JAMES B. DOHERTY,

Chairman Democratic Committee.

The Democratic nominees are as follows,

For the Senate—George Wayne Anderson, Juliant Bryant, For the House of Delegates—L. T. Chris-tian, E. C. Folkes, A. C. Harman, S. L. Kelley, Charles M. Wallace, Jr.

The campaign will be closed in this city Monday night with speeches by Captain Joseph E. Willard, of Fairfax; Captain Robert E. Lee, of the same county, and Mr. R. L. Montague, of this city.

The meeting will be held in Old Market Hall and will be under the joint auspices of the City Committee and the Old Decrease. of the City Committee and the Old Dominion Club, and Chairman Doherty, of the former, will preside. Mr. Jefferson Wallace will make the last day speech of the campaign here at the Locomotive Works at noon hour to morrow, and after the great meeting t morrow night all will be in readiness f Tuesday's battle of the ballots. M Doherty and his committee have left no stone unturned to get the vote out, and they have waged a short, sharp and very effective canvass. The speaking end of it was opened about two weeks ago with speeches by President Goode, Mr. Elly-son and Mr. Montague at the Academy of Music, and effective rallies have been held at frequent intervals since. Deherty has had the very earnest and active support of Captain Cunningham Hall, who was the leader of the Swanson forces in the primary, and the two have rallied their forces with wonderful ability and dexterity.

It is estimated that the city will give in the neighborhood of 5,000 Democratic majority, and that her legislative nominees will sweep over their opposition like a cyclone. The local party managers deserve the warmest praise upon their splendid fight, which it is believed will show fine results Tuesday night.

the city said yesterday that there was less betting on the result of next Tuesday's election than on any election held in the ate for many years.

There have been a few wagers made upon 29,000 majority for Montague," he said. "It is difficult, however, to find persons who will bet that Montague's majority will not reach this figure."

Mr. J. H. Johnson, of the State Auditor's office, left yesterday for his home in Accomac to put in a couple of days' work in the interest of the Democratic State ticket and the House and Senate nominees of his county.

THEY ARE WORKS OF ART. The Calendars Make by Cussons, May & Co. Excel in Mcchanical and Artistic Beauty. Some of the finest and most artistic calendar work done anywhere in this country is done by Cussons, May & Co., Glen Allen, Va. This firm prints fine calendars of all sorts. Thousands upon thousands of calendars, those quiet, unobtrusive solicitors, are printed by Cussons, May and Co. every year, and go forth over the entire country, exciting admiration of the fine taste shown in admiration of the fine taste shown in their design and the fine execution in the printing. The offerings of the firm for the season of 1962 surpass all former efforts. The styles are more than one hundred in number and embrace the widest variety. The monthly and weekly "tear-offs" range from the plain and serviceable offs" range from the plain and serviceable big figure article to the most artistic and a fine assortment of original paintings, diversified by reproductions from some of the world's greatest masters.

There are dainty little desk calendars with scenes of pastoral simplicity, the medium sized calendar for home or office, and the large kind, which are such a convenience in bank or counting-house. Very striking too, are the mechanical styles. venience in bank or counting-noise. Very striking, too, are the mechanical styles, ten in number, all of which are made under the firm's own patents. They show up very prominently by dial or scroll and in a compact manner, the single day or the single week, or a combination of day, week, month, and year.

May and Company fails to show the in-fallible mark of artistic excellence, and careful workmanship, for which the firm has become noted. The firm had a very fine exhibition at the Pan-American Exhibition in the Graphic Arts Building, which attracted a great deal of favorable comment by both the thousands of visitors and by the press of the city of Buffalo. Nothing was admitted to exhibition in this building which did not illustrate the highest type or mechanical and artistic excellence.

Nothing has ever been found to take the place of the calendar nor ever will, and year by year they are made more beautiful and attractive. This Virginia firm keeps abreast with the onward march, and is ever found in the forefront of the vanguard.

Novelties may come and go, fancies and fashions may undergo many a change, but as long as civilization endures, so long will clocks and watches and calendars be employed to measure the flight of time. of the city of Buffalo. Nothing was ad-

A Sour Stomach

Is Often the Real Cause of a Sour

That the condition of the digestive or-gans has a marked effect upon the char-acter or disposition is a truism as old as the hills. Old Ren Jonson wisely said. "the pleasure of living depends upon the dispute that a sunny disposition more of-ten results from a healthy digestion than from any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour-stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion of food; instead of being promptly digested and converted into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting and de-caying, créating gases which cause pres-sure on the lungs and heart, short breath and general discomfort and irritation.

Such half-digested food is, indeed, poor

Such hair-digested root is, indeed, not nourishment for the body, brain and nerves, and the result is shown in irrable tempers, unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition usually called the "blues," but how quickly all these the "blues," but now quickly air these disappear when appetite and digestion are restored!

Laxative medicines only irritate the already irritated stomach and bowels and have no effect upon actual digestion of

The sensible course to follow is to make The sensible course to follow is to make use of simple natural digestives like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals until the stomach has a chance to recuperate.

The natural digestives which every heals the stomach has a chance to recuperate.

The natural digestives which every healthy stomach contains are peptones, castase and hydrochloric and lactic acids, and when any of them are lacking the trouble begins. The reason Suart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet fprm, all these absolutely necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

Henry Kirkpatrick, of Lawrence, Mass., says: "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active out-door life should make it a daily pracace to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily use.

"From the time I was twenty-two, when I graduated from sehool with broken health from overwork, until I was thirty-four, I scarcely knew what it was to be free from stomach weakness. I had no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal.

"I had acidity and heartburn nearly every day, and sometimes was alarmed by irregularity and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I can eat my meals with reiish and satisfaction which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

The success and popularity of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deserved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.

Vice-Governor Appointed.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 2.—Hon. Luke E. Wright, the senior member of the Philippine Commission after Gover-nor Taft, has been appointed vice-gover-nor of the islands, in order to meet just such an emergency as has arisen through the present indisposition of the civil governor. His tenure is explained in the following order signed by the President and dated November 1st:

"Honorable Luke E. Wright is appointed vice-governor with authority to act as governor of the Philippine Islands whenver the civil governor is incapacitated by illness or other reason which may make it necessary for the vice-governor to exercise such duties and powers. "THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Johnny on the Giraffe.

The giraffe is a tall, spotted animal that kind of slopes down from his shoulders to his tail and has a neck that looks like a broomstick had been run up through it. The giraffe is the tailest of the animal specie, and is found in Africa and in shows, where it grows to a height of sixteen feet and is very fond of onions and carrots, though its custoor enions gait carross thought is considered to the grant food is hay, which it cats with gusto. Oft have I gazed at the giraffe and thought to myself wonderful are the ways of Providence, how does he hold his head up? The other name of the giraffe is camelopard, but giraffe is easier to say. Sometimes I have to look through large books to find out these things, but I don't mind it. We ought to hunt out all the knowledge we can while we are still young. There was a man once that trained a giraffic to pick peaches from the top of the tree. He kept it from eating them by putting a ring around its neck so it could not swallow. The giruffe is active, but runs like an old cow.—Chicago Tribune.
